

The Lord Is Close To the Broken Hearted

*The Lord is close to the broken hearted
And heals those who are crushed in spirit
None condemned, who believe in Him
For each the Lord's helpers will visit
A righteous man may have many troubles
But the Lord delivers him from them all
Protects him in his trials
Enables him without shame to stand tall*

*The righteous cry out, and the Lord hears them
He delivers them from all their sorrows
Evil will slay the wicked
Enemies become stubble on the morrow
So turn from evil and seek good
May the Lord's face be turned your way
His back to those who never understood
For over them the spirit holds no sway*

*The Lord is close to the broken hearted
He feels every tear on each cheek
Every pain in each aching heart
For every soul He earnestly seeks
For each, He has a deep burden
Not one to be lost, His goal
But the choice lies entirely with us
Choose Him to finally be made whole.*
